Space and Naval Warfare Systems Center Awards Contract

SAN DIEGO — Science Applications International Corp. (SAIC) of San Diego is being awarded a $27,509,789 indefinite delivery, indefinite quantity-type contract with cost-plus fixed-fee pricing for technical and software engineering services in support of Satellite Communications Systems improvements. Contract efforts will primarily support the incremental development of the Automated Communication Management System, a management planning tool for the SATCOM systems but also include SATCOM systems hardware and software engineering design and development, configuration and data management and field support for the SPAWAR Systems Center San Diego Communication Management Branch, Code D835. This contract contains a one-year base period and four one-year options, which, if exercised, will bring the total cumulative value of this contract to $145,081,507. All work will be performed in San Diego. The period of performance is from February 21, 2001 through February 20, 2006, inclusive of options, if exercised. Contract funds in the amount of $500,000 will expire at the end of the current fiscal year. This contract was competitively procured, published in the Commerce Business Daily, and posted to the SPAWAR E-Commerce web site. This award is one of two contracts awarded to two firms who submitted offers in response to solicitation N66001-00-R-5069. Both awardees will compete for task orders during the five-year ordering period. Space and Naval Warfare Systems Center San Diego is the contracting activity (N66001-01-D-5022).
